Feedback from Participants:

1. Yesterday and today's web seminar was very useful! Their talk seems to be informative and lots of insights about our culture and heritage. Thanks for CVM university to bring eminent speaker for this webinar
2. Indian Values and Ethics of Education were highlighted with example of world-famous ancient Nalanda University. Innovation and Creativity are key words for modern global education system.
3. General takeaways from the whole event are good and are going to help all the institutes in relooking/ rethinking and reorganizing their teaching schemes.
4. Prof Aggarwal came out with a beautiful blend of human values, the global education system and art of communication skill.
5. Blended learning is very much relevant and complimentary to traditional teaching pedagogy. AMUL Dairy is huge Success and one of the most trusted brands. Consistency in product quality and excellent supply chain management are key to AMUL Success.

6. More innovative academic teaching technologies need to be very fast and rapid way should be implemented as soon as possible for the universities, colleges and should make compulsory for all. Thank you.
