Prof. Jagruti Prajapati gave an introduction of Er. Bhikhubhai B. Patel, Chairman, Charutar Vidhya Mandal. The session then commenced by playing audio blessings of Er. Bhikhubhai B. Patel, Chairman, Charutar Vidhya Mandal as sir couldn't join because of other work. Prof. Dipti Mathpal then introduced our beloved Principal Prof. Dr. Archana Nanoty. She gave a brief introduction to this webinar.

After the introductory session, Shailaja Andhare mam started her Talk on "Respect Redefined Objective". She started off by a short story of a woman's impossible dream which showed a mirror to the double standards of our society. Also she included the gender discrimination that a woman faces from her birth itself. She also threw light on the difference between gender and sex. Where she mentioned that Sex is the biological difference between men and women while gender is socially constructed by human itself.

Further moving ahead, she mentioned the literacy and employment rates difference between both the sexes. She also incorporated the concept of Gender Sensitization and its importance. Where she mentioned that Gender Inequality is not a women's issue but it is a human issue and we all need to overcome it so no one has to face gender as a barrier in their development as a human being.

Moving forward, she gave a brief on how differently women were treated in different eras in history. Also how colonization affected the gender difference in our country.

She also shared some of her views regarding gender discrimination at different sectors in our society. She proposed some views which would be helpful for people to overcome gender discrimination. She ended her talk by quoting some of the quotes and thanking participants to be humble during her talk.

Further Principal Mam Thanked her for her wonderful thoughts. Prof. Tajel Tandel presented a vote of thanks to the speaker, participants on behalf of the Women Development Cell, MBIT. Following the vote of thanks, Prof. Sunayna Domadia Played Mbit anthem followed by National Anthem. And this way the webinar was concluded.

It was a great as well as enlightening webinar one could ever experience. All the participants learnt something and all were very happy and thankful. Participants are hoping for more such webinars.
