

Madhuben & Bhanubhai Patel Institute of Technology
The Charutar Vidya Mandal (CVM) University

Celebration of Women's Welfare Day

On 7th August 2024, as a part of Nari Vandan Utsav, a Women's Welfare Day was celebrated by Women Development Cell of Madhuben and Bhanubhai Patel Institute of Technology in collaboration with Women and Child Development Department Anand with the aim of saluting feminine power and for the upliftment of women. In this programme Smt. Ashaben Dalal, President, Jagrut Mahila Sangathan Anand; Shri Neel Shah, Advocate, District Legal Service Authority, Anand; Smt. Falguniben Solanki, Field Officer, Women and Child Development Department, Anand; Ms. Shabnam Khalifa, Counsellor, Anand Police Station Based Support Center; Ms. Kailashben Nayak, Abhayam Mahila Helpline were present at the lamp lighting ceremony. They discussed various topics and gave extensive information on various topics such as new laws regarding the constitutional rights of women, laws, women empowerment, cybercrime awareness, education, food and nutrition, health hygiene and women-oriented government schemes for their safety and security. Mr. Neel Shah explained about domestic violence and related laws. Shabnam Khalifa, Anand Police Station Based Support Center elaborated about PBSC and Sakhi One Center. Kailashben Nayak, Abhayam Mahila Helpline, demonstrated about 181 Mahila Helpline and the installation of the app and their smartphones.

